YEAR OF THE RABBIT

Legend has it that the Great Jade Emperor – Yu Di – ruler of the heavens, wanted to devise a way to measure time. So, he organised a race, where he challenged all the animals to cross the mighty river. The first twelve, would not only earn a spot on the calendar and zodiac, but would also be the guards of his heavenly realm. Thus, these 12 animals represents the cycles of the Chinese zodiac - the rat, ox, tiger, rabbit, dragon, snake, horse, sheep, monkey, rooster, dog and the pig. The rabbit is said to be a symbol of prosperity, peace and longevity. On top of the zodiac sign, each is paired with one of the five elements, this year is the Water Rabbit.
