

The AXIOM Aesthetic

Weekly inspiration for the creative mind.

Travel + Leisure has called Costa Rica the destination of the year for 2024. The beautiful Central American country boasts rain forests, beaches, rivers, biodiverse wildlife, and eco-chic hotels. Costa Rica has 30 national parks boasting in biodiversity including cloud forests, coral reefs, dry forests and rain forests. There are also more than 60 volcanoes including 5 active which provide natural geothermal hot springs to enjoy. The country has over 500,000 species of animals, with 30% of the country protected through national parks, reserves and refuges there are abundant places for the animals to thrive. Clearly no lack of outdoor activities to enjoy, the 800 miles of pristine Pacific and Caribbean beaches are among the most popular. World class resorts span across the country offering spa getaways, beach resorts, wildlife experiences and five-star accommodations. Foodies will also have something to explore with cuisine inspired by Spanish, Caribbean and Indigenous influences as well as fresh ingredients locally. Most of all, 'Pura Vida' meaning 'pure life' boasts through the country and its people making it one of the happiest places in the world.
